FRIDAY, APRIL 30, 1886.

NORWAY AND VICINITY.

Boats are being overhauled and painted. The ice went out of the pond Saturday. Anna Parker teaches the summer term in Dist. No. 3.

John and Rowe have been to Boston this week. Buy your bananas, oranges and lemons at F. H. Noyes' Grocery Store.

The festive bagpiper appeared on our streets Saturday. H. G. D. Bishop of Buckfield was in town on legal business Friday.

Thursday and Friday our village teachers attended the Institute at Oxford. Cora Stuart has been engaged to teach the summer school in District No. 4.

Some wild geese flew out of Dunham's bog one day last week. They were part of a flock that were flying northward.

The grange store appears to be well patronized. C. W. Noyes, one of Norway's best citizens, runs the business.

Mrs. Dr. Pike has been very sick with a fever. We understand she is now convalescent.

The Norway Cooperative Trade Association will have a business meeting Saturday.

The time to catch fish is when they will bite, but the time to speak suckers is when they run. No one who likes suckers need go without fish now.

If you want the best coffee you ever drank, try Chase & Sanborn's Combination of Mocha and Java, warranted pure, for sale by F. H. Noyes.

C. W. Leavitt makes a specialty of setting and repairing pumps of all kinds. He attends to all orders without delay.

The Best Hotel is being improved by a new brick floor and interior walls in the office, and several other handsome improvements. C. W. Cheney is doing the job.

Henry Drake, who has been an overseer for B. F. Spinnaker for some thirty years, had a stroke of paralysis Wednesday night.

We understand that George Stone is contemplating building on Deering St. a set of buildings for the accommodation of the Waterford stage route.

Manie A. Goding at Mrs. Greenleaf's is prepared to give lessons in oil painting. She is a fine artist and those interested will do well to consult her.

Mrs. F. E. Chase has returned from a full week of fishing and summer military and fancy goods. See advertisement.

C. B. Bailey and C. W. Howe visited the Harrison street brook last night and brought home a big basket of morel mushrooms. We extend thanks for a mess.

The leaves on the forest and shade trees have started out wonderfully well in a few days. It is a very favorable season. We may have a fine crop of apples before we get out of the woods.

E. A. Morse has a sulphur spring on his land at the head of the pond. The spring is supposed to contain sulphur, medicinal qualities, and it will soon be analyzed.

Ansel Dismore has one of the best and most convenient farms in town. He is one of our first-class farmers as well as a capitalist. He has a fine flock of sheep and hawks and his stock is looking well.

C. W. C. W. Talbot's contract with engineers E. H. Goring and W. T. Pierce broke ground for the reservoir of the Norway Water Supply Co. last Tuesday. The pumping station and stand-pipe is to be put in at once.

Robert Noyes has a hen that laid two eggs in one day. It was a monstrous big egg and when opened was found to contain double constructed as yolk and shell, consequently two eggs.

It is reported that the Republican politicians of Norway are still in the hands of the Hamlin of Bangor Governor and that a caucus will soon be called to choose delegates.

Miss Prince is in Boston buying spring goods. Ladies may expect a full line of mantles, gloves, hosiery and other seasonable articles usually found in a first-class Dry and Fancy Goods Store. Sunshades a specialty.

There will be a large increase of business at the corn fields this fall over previous years, should the crops prove to be good. Our farmers will plant two hundred acres to sweet corn this year. There will be sixty acres more than last year.

There will be a May Party at Concert Hall Saturday evening. A Bon-Bon supper will be served at 6:30 o'clock and a May Pole Dance will immediately follow the supper. After this there will be a promenade, music by Young's Orchestra. Admission including supper and bon-bons 15 cents.

The weekly attendance of our schools during the week past was: High, 96; Grammar, 97; Intermediate, 98; and Primary, 99. The rhetorical exercises of last week were quite interesting, varying from the general course by the addition of a drama very prettily given by some of the scholars.

S. H. Walcott and Capt. Whitmarsh visited Bass Island by boat last Saturday. On their trip they were obliged to make a detour on account of ice but on their return in less than four hours the lake was clear of ice. The Captain is of the opinion that the ice sunk. They found their property in good condition.

At Richardson's team collied with Saml. Millett of Greenwood on Main St. Saturday afternoon. Millett was thrown from his wagon and his horse and horse scratched in making a landing. Richardson was thrown out and had his wagon demolished and the horse was more or less cut and bruised. Cause of accident, fast driving and misapplication on the part of the last party.

Master Vinie W. Abbott has gone into the pork business. He has at present two Guinea sows and two pigs, which he says are thoroughbred. A little spotted fellow is cunning enough anyway and a terror to rats and mice. Vinie has no doubt but in a few years he will be able to supply the market. He purchased them of Ezra Stevens of Bryans Pond.

Judge Whitman claims to have had the most remarkable walk he has had in Norway for many years. He was dead but two kinds of cards and took every trick but one himself. His partner "the moccasin man" took the other one, making a walk. But one of the most remarkable things at what was that he heard was the fact that four players the other night were called short for some time before it was discovered. They must have got "bedazzled."

Commencing Monday, May 3d, a train 8:30 a. m. daily. Sundays excepted, and will leave Norway for South Paris 6:10 p. m., Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays and Saturdays, and at 5:30 p. m. on Saturdays. This is to accommodate those who wish to go to the fair and work in the other in going to and from their work. Tickets for twenty-five trips good for two months will be sold at the Company ticket office at Norway for 75 cents.

We clip the following from the Providence (R. I.) Evening Telegram, which will be of interest to many of our readers. It is from the Rev. W. M. Misk, who was away and also having lived at Otisfield for a few years. A pleasant and select wedding reception last Thursday evening, followed by the marriage of Frank C. Myers, son of Jacob L. Myers, and Miss Inez W. Gies, step-daughters of the Hon. Constable Benoit. The ceremony took place at the residence of the Rev. W. M. Misk, the officiating clergyman being the Rev. W. M. Misk. The wedding was held at the future residence of the bride and groom, No. 3 Short Street. It was a gathering of friends, who testified their esteem for the happy pair in numerous substantial ways. Rev. Henry Le Yale, who was called upon to deliver the wedding sermon, very skillfully and with artistic beauty.

Fred Barrell is moving into one of J. A. Holter's tenements.
